A loving and caring family encouraged his early love for music which started at the age of five when he began playing in the Sunday school building of his church. What We'd Like to Hear in Church

Hey, it's my turn to sit in the front pew!

I was so enthralled, I never noticed your sermon ran longer than usual.

I'll volunteer to be the permanent junior high Sunday school teacher.

I love it when we sing hymns I've never heard before.

Because we're all here, let's start the worship service early.

Pastor, we'd like to send you to this Bible seminar in the Bahamas.

Ladies' Group

The Ladies' Group will meet October 8 at 7pm with Bonita Erikson as hostess. Come and enjoy fellowship and a devotional. Plans will be started for the annual Christmas Party. All women of the church are welcome.

Praises

Have you enjoyed the flowers growing and blooming by the east door? Be sure to thank Kay Loges, she keeps them watered all summer.

How many of you notice the number in attendance that is posted by the south door? Sue Litton and Charlene Campbell count and record the numbers, give them a big thank you.

Thank you, Lee Prigmore for leading Wednesday night Bible study. You provided us with good material to study and think about.

Promise Keepers

On October 8 at 7pm the Promise Keepers will meet at the church.

How's Your Path?

Some Christian converts in an African village were diligent about daily prayer. In fact, they each had a special place in the thicket outside town where they prayed in solitude. Over time, they wore pathways through the brush to their private prayer areas. If someone neglected his or her prayer life, it was evident because fresh grass started growing on that particular footpath. Out of concern, fellow Christians offered this loving reminder: "Friend, there's grass growing on your path."

How worn is your own path to prayer? Are you persistent when answers don't seem to come? Do you trust that God will answer your prayers, according to his good and gracious will?

Don't abandon your pathway to prayer. When you grow weary, remember Galatians 6:9 (NIV), which promises that "at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up."
